

2010-2011 Awarded Classroom Education Grants

1. Emerson Elementary School – Julie Kelly
To provide funds for Family Fun-Pack Game Set – Level A Reading for kindergarten through fifth grade students.
2. Jackson Elementary School – Rosemary Albright
To provide funds to build a library of bilingual children’s books for second grade students learning English as a new language.
3. Seymour High School – Sara Bane
To provide funds for an Oil Degrading Microbes kit for AP Environmental Science students (juniors and seniors)
4. Redding Elementary School – Kathy Moffett
To provide funds for subscriptions to Scholastic News, Ranger Rick, and Your Big Backyard for second grade students.
5. Redding Elementary School – Laura Burbrink
To provide funds for subscriptions to Scholastic News, Ranger Rick, and Your Big Backyard for second grade students.
6. Seymour Middle School Sixth Grade Center – Darrell Martin
To provide funds for hardware and software to allow students to create their own video broadcast of science topics covered in the classroom. For sixth grade science students.
7. Immanuel Lutheran School – Sandra Franke
To provide funds for a webcam for junior high language arts students to enhance communications with out-of-state pen pals.
8. Crothersville Elementary School – Ann McCollom
To provide funds for Whisper Phones for kindergarten students.
9. Immanuel Lutheran School – Sarah Bumbleburg
To provide funds for “Tranquil Blue” light filters for Special Education students, first through eighth grade.
10. St. John’s Lutheran School – Cheryl Hallow
To provide funds for a document camera which can be used for map skills, science experiments, group work in math, etc. For third and fourth grade students.
11. St. Ambrose School – Katie Gilbert
To provide funds for The Great Grow Along which allows students to care for and observe two rats over the course of four weeks. One rat is given milk and the other receives sugar water. Other foods are added to measure length and weight each week. For fifth through eighth grade science students.

12. Emerson Elementary School – Jessica Otte

To provide funds for a document camera which will be used for all subject areas. For third grade students.

13. Jackson Elementary School – Jay Cherry & Kelli Darlage

To provide funds for 20 copies of Signs for Me to teach sign language to third grade students who have a class member with a hearing disability who communicates with American Sign Language.

14. Jackson Elementary School (Early Childhood Special Ed) – Nancy Cherry

To provide funds for several IPAD applications for use with children to enhance language development and verbal communication. For preschool special education students.